

Installation of Nanosurf's 500 th STM at Seton Hall University, New Jersey, US.

Nanosurf is proud to announce that our 500th STM was installed in the physics department at Seton Hall University, New Jersey, USA.

Reaching this mark is a testimony to the enduring popularity of the E-STM and motivates us to continue to adapt this microscope to the needs of our customers.

Matt Miklius (seated) gets ready to measure with Dr. Parviz Ansari (Physics Dept. Chair), Molly Easo Smith (Dean of College of Arts & Sciences), and Mark Flowers (Nanoscience Inc.) looking on (right to left).

Dr. Daniel Bubb,
Dr. Parviz Ansari
(Physics Dept. Chair),
Molly Easo Smith
(Dean of College of Arts & Sciences),
Dr. Jeffery Togman
(Associate Dean),
Mark Flowers
(Nanoscience Inc.), and
Dr. Frank Curti
(designated E-STM user)
dwarf the 500th Nanosurf
E-STM at Seton Hall, NJ.